

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES GUIDE FOR 2010/2011

Our role ....

The most important role that we have as a district is to assist northern communities with their sport, culture and recreation development. Our Community Relations Coordinators are the key staff who work with communities on a daily basis. All of the staff at the NSCRD are available to support the communities' needs in the sport, culture, recreation, physical activity or youth leadership areas. We are here to help connect communities with other organizations such as provincial sport governing bodies or recreational or cultural organizations. See the back page for the listing of NSCRD staff and contact information.

Working with our member communities ...Community Development Support Tools	The NSCRD has many tools that the Community Relations Coordinators and all staff use to provide or support our member communities with. Examples include; community profiles, a program planning template, sample needs assessments, and others. In 2010/2011, work will continue on the Community Recreation Handbook for Northern community's sport, culture and recreation development, which will be launched at the NSCRD Annual General Meeting in June.
Communication	For more information contact Knighton Hillstrom at 425-3127 ext. 2.
NSCRD Newsletter - 4 issues per year	The North of 54 newsletters are an information tool for sport, culture, recreation, physical activity and youth leadership in northern Saskatchewan. It includes ideas for communities in the areas of sport, culture, recreation and physical activity, acknowledging and celebrating community successes, promotion of programs, events and professional development opportunities, and important deadlines (i.e. grant). The newsletter is mailed throughout the district quarterly and available on the web site www.nscrd.com .
NSCRD Website: www.nscrd.com - updated ongoing	See our Website for communication on all NSCRD programs and services; ideas for community sport, culture, recreation and physical activity; celebrating community successes; events and professional development opportunities; grant deadlines and more. This workbook helps communities plan for more organized, competitive sport programs. The workbook and grant program detail can be found on our website under the following link: http://www.nscrd.com/programs_sport_community.html .
Inter-community sport programs	The NSCRD Community Relations Coordinators are available to facilitate the communication, planning, and provision of inter-community programs. Contact your CRC.
Culture	For more information on recreation programs please contact Judy MacLeod Campbell at 425-3127 ext. 5.
Northern Spirits – Workshop &amp; Showcase	The Northern Spirits program is developed and delivered through a partnership between four major partners, Musqua Entertainment / Voices of the North, the Northern Sport, Culture, and Recreation District, Missinipi Broadcasting Corporation (MBC), and Prince Albert Grand Council. Meadow Lake Tribal Council has also joined the Northern Spirits Committee. The program has been developed for three years. This program will continue in 2010 if funding is secured. Northern Spirits has two main components, a Workshop and a Showcase. Youth submit applications to be part of the workshop. The Northern Spirits Workshop covers all aspects of performing and producing a showcase as well as sessions related to self-esteem and confidence. From the workshop, twenty-five youth are selected to produce and perform the Northern Spirits Showcase, which is held in October at the E.A. Rawlinson Centre. These youth will be mentored with their roles for the Showcase.
Northern Drama Project	The NSCRD has partnered with the Saskatchewan Drama Association (SDA) on the 2 nd Northern Drama Project . There are five participating communities this year: Beauval, Cumberland House, Ile a la Crosse, La Loche and La Ronge. The SDA provides drama development support to the communities including two, one-day workshops in their community, as well as ongoing support and at the Northern Drama Festival, which will be held on April 23 & 24, 2010. The NSCRD provides the logistical support, coordination and links. From the Northern Drama Festival, one play is chosen to participate in the Provincial Drama Festival in Regina May 6-8, 2010.
Hip Hop/Beat Making/DJing/Art Program	The Northern Sport, Culture and Recreation District (NSCRD) is working with the Interactive Media and Performance (IMP) Labs of the University of Regina to offer a new and exciting Hip Hop/Beat Making/DJing/Art one and a half day workshop in northern communities, which would also include a training opportunity for two community program leaders in the IMP Labs at the University of Regina for a week in the summer. This program can be offered in six – seven northern communities. The deadline for community commitment applications is April 30, 2010.
Links and partnerships with provincial cultural organizations/groups	The NSCRD will work with provincial cultural organizations/groups to link new or increased programming in Northern communities.
Northern Saskatchewan	The NSCRD would like to develop an inventory or database of community artists, cultural
