Local organizations and schools can support youth groups by joining as Community Hosts at www.sogoactive.com. Community Hosts provide support to the youth by offering access to active living facilities, equipment, programming, etc. It is through this Community Host support and partnership that youth groups can apply for a $500.00 Youth Group Grant to support youth led physical activity initiatives. The online grant application is accessible through the Community Host portion of the Sogo Active website. To qualify for funding, groups have to indicate that they are planning to facilitate physical activity opportunities for the group and their peers for a minimum of ten (10) weeks. Youth groups can use this funding to purchase GPS units to start a Geocaching Club, or buy tennis rackets and nets to start a tennis league in their local gym. These are just a few ideas. Help the youth think of creative ways in which they can become more active! | NHL Players Association | This is an on-going program with no end date specified. | Goals and Dreams Fund: NHLPA Goals & Dreams assists volunteer based programs that help economically disadvantaged children play the great sport of hockey. NHLPA members believe that more children should have the opportunity to play hockey-- a sport that educates players in teamwork, commitment, discipline and physical fitness. Since the inception of the program, more than 50,000 children in 23 countries have benefited from equipment donations from their NHL heroes. Through the donation of brand new hockey equipment, NHLPA Goals & Dreams outfits groups of deserving children (maximum of 50 at one time) who are enrolled in grassroots programs that provide an economically feasible alternative for the children. The NHLPA Goals & Dreams fund provides equipment grants for grassroots hockey programs but does not act as a substitute for existing funding or fundraising activities. | Website: www.nhlpa.com/Giving-Back/Goals-And-Dreams/ |

| RCMP Foundation | Projects are funded twice annually, spring and fall, contributing approximately $250,000 annually. Deadlines for submissions are April and October. | Any community group or individual, with the support and participation of the local RCMP detachment, may initiate an application for RCMPF Project Funding. Projects should primarily target the RCMP Foundation mandate, "Canadian youth at risk" however target groups such as seniors, battered women, adult literacy and others will be accepted and considered based on the needs of the community. RCMP INVOLVEMENT - Projects must clearly demonstrate significant and continuous RCMP involvement. Such things as occasional drop ins, referrals or presentations are not considered "significant and continuous involvement" as this is already part of the RCMP community policing role. Project must ensure the continuity of the program if the key RCMP member is transferred or deployed. | For additional information on the funding process please contact Sarah Bellissimo at 613-741-7560 ext. 5.
